Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Earl Lundin knows the great worth and beauty of music in our everyday lives; and,

Whereas, Earl has been a music man all his life, and after over a half century of performing at weddings, dances, and concerts, he no doubt attributes some of his success in life to the soothing influence of song; and,

Whereas, Throughout the years, Earl has given so much of himself to the Dakota area, and it seems only right that this maker of melodies be rewarded and recognized for his fine achievement in the arts; and,

Whereas, For many years, Earl has shared his achievements in the field of music that give comfort, solace, and joy to all who hear him play, and it is impossible to estimate how many lives he has touched by sharing with us his special gift; therefore, it is for this reason Earl deserves our special praise and attention; and,

Whereas, Earl Lundin has been chosen by the Dakota Musicians Association to be inducted into the Dakota Musicians Hall of Fame:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 20, 2010, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Teresa J Bray, Deputy

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
